

Contents

Essays

PHILIPP THER

Divergence in Convergence: The East Central European Transformation since the 1980s in Historical Perspective 5

PÉTER APOR

Authentic Community and Autonomous Individual: A Pre-History to 1989 22

ALEXANDRA BOTYÁNSZKI

The Concept of “National Reconciliation” and the Hungarian Transition 40

BÉLA RÉVÉSZ

Constitution-making and State Security: Attempts at Adhering to the Constitution in the State Security Reform Concepts of 1989–1990 63

TIBOR VALUCH

Some Peculiarities of the Social Structure in Hungary after the Democratic Transition 101

Workshop

PÉTER CSUNDERLIK

From buffoon to icon – the metamorphoses of Gyula Szekfű’s image of Rákóczi 119

IVÁN ZOLTÁN DÉNES

István Bibó – a resistant saving lives in 1944 131

LÁSZLÓ VÁRI–RÓBERT ORBÁN–LÁSZLÓ PÉTER

The Reform Grand Lodge of Hungarian Freemasonry 145

Beyond our borders

“Eastern European history proves to be one of the most innovative areas in German historical research.” Interview with Joachim von Puttkamer 166

Bibliography of Joachim von Puttkamer 170

JOACHIM VON PUTTKAMER

Schooling, religion and imperial integration. Education in the Habsburg Monarchy and Tsarist Russia 173

Outlook

The privilege of interpretation: Debates on Woodrow Wilson in American historiography

TIBOR GLANT 184

Reviews

The long 19th century of Hungarian history – in French (Charles Kecskeméti: La Hongrie des Habsbourg, Tome II: de 1790 à 1914. Préface de Sándor Csernus et de Noël-Yves Tonnerre. Presses Universitaires de Rennes, Rennes, 2011) PÉTER BALÁZS	195
Meta-microhistory (Mikrotörténelem másodfokon. Eds.: Gábor Papp and M. István Szijártó. L'Harmattan, Budapest, 2010) ESZTER EDINA MOLNÁR	201
„...facts hardly shape history – but ideas do” (Hungary's Long Nineteenth Century. Constitutional and Democratic Traditions in a European Perspective. Collected Studies by László Péter. Edited by Miklós Lojkó. Brill, Leiden–Boston, 2012) ÁGNES DEÁK	203
On the synthesis of the history of Germans in Hungary (Seewann, Gerhard: Geschichte der Deutschen in Ungarn. Band 1: Vom Frühmittelalter bis 1860.; Band 2: 1860 bis 2006. Studien zur Ostmitteleuropaforschung 24. Verlag Herder-Institut, Marburg, 2012) ÁGNES TAMÁS	207
Authors	213