

From the Editor's Desk

Our journal has completed the most extensive promotion campaign in its history. In the course of the past eighteen months advertising flyers were sent out to nearly 6,000 addresses. The cost of the campaign, designed above all to promote our 1981 special issues, was deferred in part by a grant received from the Multiculturalism Directorate of Canada.

In accordance with plans announced earlier, we are re-vamping the Review's editorial board. In the future editorial advisers will serve on a temporary basis. The editorial staff for the next few years is now being selected from among scholars in Canada and elsewhere who have been taking an active part in editorial work in recent years.

The transfer of the Review's administrative and other work to the University of Toronto continues. During 1982 the editorial office took over the handling of financial administration for the journal, formerly handled jointly by Mr. M. Böröczki in Ottawa, and N.F. Dreisziger in Kingston. The concentration of all such functions in one office should further facilitate the efficiency of the Review's operations.

After long preparations and a fund-raising campaign, the Hungarian Reader's Service Inc. of Ottawa has completed plans for the establishment of a prize in memory of the late Dr. Ferenc G. Harcsár, the organization's founder, and our journal's co-founder. The F.G. Harcsár Memorial Prize will be awarded to young scholars who publish outstanding work in the Review. Normally the award will be offered each year on the recommendation of the journal's co-editors or a committee chosen by them. The value of the prize at present is $100. Further donations to the prize-fund are welcome and should be directed to the Hungarian Readers' Service Inc., c/o Mr. M. Böröczki, 1730 Gage Crescent, Ottawa, Canada K2C 0Z9. The first of the memorial prizes (for 1981 and 1982) will be awarded at the forthcoming Hungarian Studies Conference at the University of Toronto in May 1983.

During 1983, the Review plans to publish a special volume consisting of a collection of essays dealing with Hungary in the Second World War. The volume will deal mainly with the themes of involvement in the war and the search for a way out of the catastrophe. Contributions from nearly a dozen authors are now being examined and edited in preparation for the publication of this volume.
