

BUSINESS REGULATIONS

for the International Congress of Societies for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

The following persons are allowed to take part in the Congress Meetings :

- I. Delegates of Societies for Protection of Animals ;
- II. Member of Societies for Protection of Animals ;
- III. Guests.

To every participator is handed, on application, a card of legitimation with his name. No payment for the same is required. The legitimation card designated, are of different colours Delegates of Societies P. C. A. can take part in the voting. Each delegate has, as a rule, but one vote ; the majority of votes decides.

In important cases however where nominal voting is required each delegate has as many votes as he represents Societies ; a delegate cannot represent more than 5 Societies and thus cannot give more than 5 votes.

Each Society can send but 5 delegates. A special Commission-Composed of the Secretaries of the Congress will determine which resolutions moved during the Congress are to be put before the Plenum.

The Congress is welcomed, opened & closed in the language of the country in which the Congress is held. The papers are to be read and the reports given in the language of the country or in some wellknown universal tongue. Each Society has a right to begin and end his report in his Society's language but not more than 10 minutes are allowed for such recapitulation.

Each reporter is requested to be brief, and not to speak for more than an hour. To those who take part in the debate 15 minutes at the most are allowed. Only once can a reporter be spoken to. The reporters have the last word.

The Congress Committed of the Budapest S. P. C. A. constitutes itself until the last Congress evening as an Office.

On the first Congress evening the election of this Congress bureau takes place as follows :

- 1 President,
- 5 Vicepresidents,
- 5 Secretaries.

Non-delegates cannot as a rule take part in the debate ; exceptionally, however, towards the close of the Debate they may be allowed to speak.
